

An ART update from Mrs. VanPelt

Hello L.C.S. Artists

Mrs.VanPelt is missing you! I have been wondering what you have been creating with your families? I was thinking you needed some new ideas for inspiration. Check out these links below. If you would like to send me a picture of your creation I would love to see what you have been up to! Be safe and don't forget to clean up your own messes! Love, Mrs.VanPelt
